GAGGED THE CLERK.

Daring Jewelry Robbers at Danbury, Conn., Secure a Rich Haul.

Danbury, Conn., July 12.—A most daring jewelry robbery took place here last evening before dark. Two men entered Larne's jewelry store on Main street and inquired for a monogram, which was ordered several days ago. The only person in the store was Clarence Knox, a clerk eighteen years of age. As he turned to get the monogram one of the men seized him from behind and choked him almost to insensibility. The two men then gagged him and bound his limbs with ropes. They then secured jewelry and diamonds to the value of $9,000 and $700 in cash, and made their escape through a back window. After some little time young Knox succeeded in dragging himself to the door and giving the alarm. It was afterward learned that the thieves had secured a cab and been driven to Mill Plain, a small town a few miles distant, but no further trace of them can be found. Young Knox is suffering severely from the rough handling he received. His throat is badly lacerated, his face bruised and several teeth are knocked out. The robbery created the greatest excitement, and searching parties have been out in all directions all night.
